

YOH TANIMOTO

Yoh Tanimoto was born in 1958 in Mie Prefecture. Once the inspiration hit him to pursue a creative life in ceramics, his career took off very quickly. Today his success has taken him around the world many times over. He graduated from the Kyoto Prefectural Ceramists Technical Institute in the early eighties, studied drawing in Paris, assisted ceramist J.G. Artigus in Barcelona, and built an Igayaki kiln at his studio in the Paris suburbs. His works have been exhibited at galleries and seminars in Paris, Barcelona, Tokyo, London, Catalonia, and New York City.
